

Jeanine Sullins Holder

Jeanine is an ordained minister with the Assemblies of God and a U.S. Missionary. She is presently traveling throughout the United States with information on how to be aware of sex trafficking and how we can keep our children from becoming victims of this terrible tragedy.

Previously, Jeanine was director of a rehabilitation home in Houston, being built for girls who are victims of sex trafficking.

Before coming to Houston Jeanine served in an associate pastoral position for the present Superintendent of the South Texas District of the Assemblies of God for six years.

Prior to her first husband's death, Jeanine served alongside him in pastoral ministry for thirty years. In that capacity she preached, taught, was active in all areas of music ministry, directed dramas, crusades and other ministries in their churches.

Recently Jeanine married an Assemblies of God pastor. They are enjoying their life together and supporting each other in their respective ministries.

Jeanine has a passion for these innocent girls. Her prayer is for their salvation and complete deliverance, and that they might have an intimate walk with Jesus.
