

David Raley

LFTL Field Representative
Men's Ministries | Light for the Lost

David Raley serves as the national LFTL Field Representative for Men's Ministries of the Assemblies of God. In this role, Raley is committed to the promotion and raising of funds for Light for the Lost. LFTL is the missions project of Men's Ministries, which provides resources to missionaries and ministries for evangelistic outreach.

Before joining Men's Ministries, Raley served Convoy of Hope, an international compassion ministry, as a liaison to local churches. Prior to this, he was national Speed the Light director, church planter in Alabama and the state's district youth director for six years.

David and his wife, Patricia, have one son, Jonathan. They currently reside in Springfield, Missouri.
