

Zollie L. Smith, Jr.

U.S. Missions Executive Director

I extend a personal invitation to our missionaries, chaplains, and project volunteers as well as our district partners to attend Celebration 75 in Tulsa, Oklahoma.

Tuesday, July 10, will be an evening of reflection and rejoicing as U.S. Missions "Commemorates the Past."

During the evening service we will reflect on what God has done, rejoice in His faithfulness, and end the evening with a party in honor of AGUSM's 75th birthday.

Wednesday, July 11, we turn our attention to seeking God's face in a day devoted to fasting and prayer as we "Consecrate the Present." Join us for a concert of prayer, a time of fasting, and a rededication of our lives, plans, and ministries to the Father.

The focus for Thursday, July 12 is training to help you "Construct the Future." From Alton Garrison's general session to department specific meetings, the goal is to prepare you.

Celebration 75 will provide focused opportunities to reflect on God's faithfulness, seek God's favor, and prepare for the future. I look forward to seeing you there as we commemorate the past, consecrate the present, and construct the future of U.S. Missions . . . that none perish!

USMK

What do hilarious games, live music, awesome messages, ministry workshops in dance, drama, and puppetry have in common?

It's the kid and youth portion of Celebration 75! U.S. missionary to children, Randy Thompson and a team of students from North Carolina make up KidzAblaze Ministries (www.kidzablaze.com). They are excited to be providing daily ministry to a great group of missionary kids!

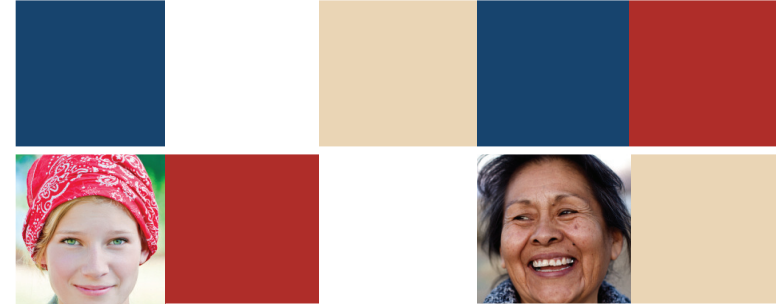

A free USMK T-shirt will be given to all kids who attend Celebration 75
